Cornell Entrepreneurship Network Event

The Cornell Club of Washington is pleased to announce the formation of the Greater Washington Cornell Entrepreneur Network (CEN), the regional branch of the nationwide Cornell CEN.

CEN, a component of Cornell's Entrepreneurship and Personal Enterprise Program (EPE), is a nationwide entrepreneurship networking program. CEN is designed to foster entrepreneurial collaboration among graduates of all Cornell schools--Arts, Engineering, Johnson School, Hotel School, Law School, and others--to enable Cornell alumni to help each other exchange the fullest range of business-related skills and contacts that Cornellians possess. CEN's motto is "linking Cornellians to foster career success."

Letter from the President...

October 2002

Dear Club Members,

Back in Ithaca the leaves are changing, and the air is turning crisp. Students will soon fill the football stands, and the band will march through campus – Fall is a great time of year.

And it is a great time to be a CCW member. We have plenty of activities this month, including a speaker panel with the Cornell Entrepreneur Network on October 15 and a Nutritional Wellness Series with Elizabeth Hill (HumEc '00) on October 7th. If community service is more your style, consider helping local students through the CCW tutoring program. Naturally, we expect to see you at Zinck's night on the 17th.

Fall is a great time to join other local Cornell alumni and have a great time in this city.

Chuck Schilke, JD '88
cns7@cornell.edu

PS: Please renew your membership! If the mailing label on this newsletter says, "PLEASE RENEW" please send in your membership as soon as possible. CCW members do receive discounts on all events, and you don't want to miss out on one issue of our newsletter. If you have already renewed, pass on the enclosed form to another Cornell alum and encourage them to join!

Club Tidbits...

Update on the Evening at the Botanical Gardens:

We regret to announce that we had to postpone the unique event planned for November 7th at the US Botanical Gardens. Unfortunately, due to unresolved security concerns, the Gardens are not permitted to hold public events this fall. We are diligently working to reschedule the evening, hopefully for a time this Spring once the appropriate security legislation is passed. Please stay tuned, and we again apologize for any inconvenience and disappointment this may have caused.

Volunteers Needed:

Assistant Treasurer: Melani Schultz will be completing her two-year term as CCW Treasurer this coming June. We are looking for an Assistant Treasurer who is willing to learn the job and serve a two-year term as Treasurer starting in July of 2003.

Assistant Database Chair: Eli Savada will be completing his term as CCW Database Chair this coming June. We are looking for an Assistant Database Chair to learn the job and serve as Database Chair starting in July of 2003.

Either position is an opportunity to get more involved with CCW and work closely with the officers and board of directors. If you are interested in either position please contact CCW President Chuck Schilke at cns7@cornell.edu or call him at his office at 202-639-3279 or contact CCW Immediate Past President Eliot Greenwald at ejg14@cornell.edu or call him at his office at 202-424-7809 or at his home at 301-320-5750.

Father's Day Picnic - Lost and Found:

There are a number of items in the CCW office from the 2002 Father's Day Picnic, as well as from previous years. If you are missing items that you think you may have left at the Picnic, please contact Chuck Schilke, cns7@cornell.edu, in order to make arrangements for picking up the items.

CCW JobBank:

The Cornell Club of Washington brings together Cornell alumni and other professionals to establish a regional JobBank in the D.C. area. Employment areas include management consulting, high technology companies, Federal Government, non-profit, public relations firms, and Capitol Hill opportunities.

CCW JobBank is a clearinghouse for job leads, and the information base is a companion service to membership with the Cornell Club. The JobBank is a referral service to match candidate's qualifications with openings posted by regional alumni. The listing is a localized pool that is distinct from the Career services offered in Ithaca, NY.

Thank you for posting openings to help alumni. Your help is very appreciated for alumni who desire work in the non-technical fields. (We have a shortage of these opportunities). Contact H. Shimbo at hks2@cornell.edu for JobBank assistance.

Interview Prospective Cornellians:

We are actively recruiting interviewers for the upcoming 2002-2003 application year. We are in immediate need for interviewers in Prince Georges County as well as western Fairfax and Loudoun counties. If you are interested in interviewing high school applicants to Cornell, please contact Debbie Rutenberg '75, Debbie@adsolution.com, 301-656-4075 (MD/DC) or Samantha Peele '91, h2oston@yahoo.com, 703-904-4112 (VA).

CCW COMMUNITY SERVICE

We have a busy Fall ahead of us with many volunteer opportunities! We hope you will consider joining us for one or more events.

October - Sweeping the Avenue festival in Mt Ranier, MD. Volunteers are needed to help the event organizer, World Arts Focus (www.worldartsfocus.org), on Saturday, October 26. We need volunteers to help with trash pick-up, weed pulling, sweeping and supervising an art or activity site. Children and families are welcome. This is a great event for all ages. Please contact Michelle at mjohnsondc@yahoo.com if you would like to participate.

November - Clean-up project at the National Zoo. Date and time to be announced.

If you have suggestions for future CCW projects or would like to become more involved with CCW community service activities, please contact Michelle Johnson '95 (mjohnsondc@yahoo.com) or Suzanne Proctor '99 (sop9@cdc.gov).

TUTORING

The Cornell Club of Washington will once again be participating in the Saturday Academy tutoring program at Jefferson Junior High School in Washington, DC this year. This will be the CCW's fifth year working with the 7, 8 and 9th graders at Jefferson. Tutors are needed in all subjects, from Algebra and Reading to Spanish and Physics.

Tutoring is held on Saturday mornings from 10 AM to 11:30 AM. A long-term commitment is not required. The program is designed to provide tutors with the flexibility to attend when they are available.

Jefferson is located at 801 7th Street SW in DC, near the intersection of 7th Street SW and Maine Avenue. There is plenty of free parking and the school is four blocks south of the L'Enfant Plaza Metro.

For more information, contact Dan Lavanga '89 at 703-548-8349 or dlavanga@hotmail.com.

Attention Gay, Lesbian,
Bisexual and Transgendered
Cornellians!

SAVE THE DATE - October 17, 2002

The Washington, DC Metro Chapter of Cornell University Gay and Lesbian Alumni (CUGALA-DC) is sponsoring an International Spirit of Zinck's, get-together on Thursday, October 17, 2002, from 7 PM on, at Cobalt (17th and R NW - look for the black awning which says 'food/bar' on it). Closest Metro is DuPont Circle. Friends, significant others welcome.

Questions? Please contact Courtenay Singer '91 at 202-270-0908 or Rich Levy '91 at correo@erols.com or 202-863-1144. Hope to see you there!

CCW Ghost Tour

Saturday, October 26. Join us on a pre-Halloween lanternlight walking tour of Alexandria, Virginia. Hear the haunting tales of the unknown (and the undead) on this entertaining jaunt through one of the nation's most historic cities. The tour begins at 7:30pm in front of the Ramsay House Visitors Center, 221 King Street, Alexandria. Tour lasts approximately one-hour and covers about six blocks.

Tickets are $6 per person. Because tickets must be purchased prior to tour time, please contact Jonathan Simon at jds35@cornell.edu or (202) 363-3027 if you are interested. Arrangements to meet for dinner beforehand at Union Street Public House will be made, if there is sufficient interest.

PCCW Event

The Presidents Council of Cornell Women and the Cornell Club of Washington, will be presenting a panel discussion on "Healthy Lifestyles for the 21st Century Woman", in Washington, D.C., led by a great panel of Cornell-PCCW alumnae:

Dr. Elizabeth Barrett-Connor
Professor and Chief, Division of Epidemiology
University of California, San Diego
(invited)

Dr. Johanna Dwyer
Professor of Medicine
New England Medical Center

Dr. Adrian Dobs
Professor of Medicine and Oncology
Johns Hopkins Hospital

Time: November 7th. Wine and cheese reception and to begin at 6 PM, with Panel Discussion to begin at 7. The event will conclude at 8 to 8:30.

Location: Miller & Chevalier, 1450 G Street, NW; 9th Floor. (Note: this is a beautiful terraced space overlooking the Washington monument.)

RSVP: to Randy Segal (rsegal@hns.com) and include your email address and phone contact information. If there is a large response we may need to limit attendance, on a first come first served basis.

Nutritional Wellness Series

Please join Elizabeth Hill '00, nutrition specialist, to learn of the latest food, health, and well-being news.

October 7th:

Functional Foods: Foods that may have health benefits beyond the traditional nutrients that they contain are often called "functional foods." Come learn the bonus nutritional value of many of our favorite goods: tomatoes, soy, sugarless chewing gum, green tea, and cranberry juice. We will discuss their potential to lower disease risk factors and to treat common ailments.

November 4th:

Eating for a Healthy Heart: Our daily diets and routines can greatly affect our most important organ. What foods are most useful in preventing cardiovascular disease? What nutrients are essential for reducing health risks? We will address those and other questions regarding the best practices for maintaining a healthy lifestyle for a long-term healthy heart.

December 3rd:

Navigating the Web for Nutritional Knowledge: The internet is no doubt a great resource for the latest and greatest news. But how does one sort through the media hype and determine fact from the fiction? We will guide the audience through nutritional web sites and suggest the most useful and accurate places for gathering nutritional information.

Location: 1860 North Scott Street Apt 637, Arlington VA (Corner of N. Quinn and Key Blvd) Rosslyn Heights Apartments -- Street and visitor parking is available. Please contact Sheyna for further directions.

Metro: Rosslyn (orange and blue line)

All sessions will run from 7- 8 PM and are free for CCW members. Space is limited. Please RSVP to Sheyna Horowitz: 202-777-5797/horowitz@executiveboard.com

Modern Drama Discussion Group - The Amen Corner

The Modern Drama Discussion Group is a joint project of the Cornell, Chicago, Harvard, and Stanford alumni clubs. For regular updates e-mail join@footlightsdc.org. On Wednesday, October 2, the MDDG will discuss James Baldwin's The Amen Corner (1955), a "funny" (New Yorker), "wonderfully touching" (New York Post), "beautifully written" (Nation) play by a writer who "stands among the very best of his generation" (New Republic).

The play's central character, a rigidly pious pastor, can neither forgive her scapegrace jazzman husband nor accept her teenage son's normal adolescent ambitions. When her husband turns up terminally ill, she faces losing him, her son, & her pulpit.

The meeting starts with dinner at 6:30 PM, and the discussion takes place 7:30-9:30, both at Pan Asian Noodles, 2020 P St., NW (Dupont Circle metro). To reserve a space at the meeting call 202-898-4825 or e-mail gruenberg@footlightsdc.org. Participation (except for dinner) is free; $5 contribution recommended. The meeting will feature two Baldwin scholars from Howard University, where "The Amen Corner" had its world premiere.

On Sunday, October 6, 2 PM at the recently renovated H Street Theater, 1365 H St., NE the MDDG will attend the African Continuum Theatre's production of The Amen Corner. Call 301-897-9314 or e-mail rlarkin@footlightsdc.org if you'd like a lift to the theater & back. Tickets are $15 and include a post-show discussion. Dinner will follow at Eat First, a restaurant in nearby Chinatown. Mail your check, payable to "Footlights," to Robin Larkin, 5403 Nibud Ct., Rockville, MD 20852.

For information visit www.footlightsdc.org.

The Ivy Singles Social Club October Event

The Washington DC Stanford Association is pleased to host The Ivy Singles Social Club at I Matti, the finest Italian Restaurant in Adams-Morgan

Thursday, October 17, 2002,
6:30-8:30 p.m.
2436 18th Street NW, Washington DC
(202-462-8844)

Come enjoy an Italian "Happy Hour" with delectable appetizers and desserts from the kitchen of Chef Roberto Catanuso.

Reservations: $20 by check to J. C. Hyde, 2758 Viking Drive, Oak Hill, VA 20171, by Monday October 14th. Make checks payable to "The Washington, DC Stanford Assoc." and note your school on the check.

$25 for email reservations by October 15th (Stanford@ivysinglesdc.com) and walk-ins. Please RSVP as space is limited to 90 people. The restaurant is handicap accessible.

Metro: The closest Metro is Woodley Park/Zoo on the Red Line. Catch the 98 U Street/Woodley Park Metro Loop bus. RideGuide suggests the 42 Mt. Pleasant bus from Farragut West Metro station for those near the Orange Line. For those driving, the Colonial Parking deck is located across the street for $8. On-street parking is unlikely.

NOTE DIFFERENT DAY OF THE WEEK!
For further info, please visit our website at www.ivysinglesdc.com.

Cornell Hotel Society Event October 25 -27, 2002

CCW Sports News & Events

CCW Sports Update:

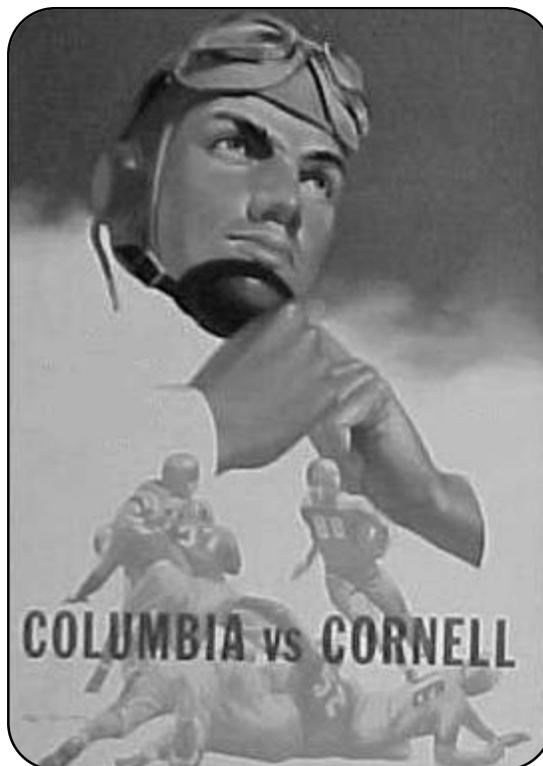

The Second Annual "CAN Alumni Night" with the Washington Capitals will take place on Friday, November 1, 2002 vs Tampa Bay Lightning. Cornell Alumni, Family and Friends are invited to the 7 PM face off and Pre/Post Game Happy Hour to be announced. 400 Level, center/ends, discounted tickets will be available online or by phone for $25/Row A-L and $20/Row M-Q. The CAPs will seat alumni clubs in the same area and donate $5 for each ticket sold back to the chapter, so be sure to tell them you're with Cornell! Contact Audrey Kleinsmith'96 at alk1@cornell.edu, 240/221-0349 (home) or visit the CAN website at www.dcalum.org for more information.

Join Cornell Alumni on the gridiron, in an effort to reclaim the CAN Co-Ed Flag Football Championship Cup. A full season of weekend games, and day long tournament on the monument grounds are being planned for October-January. Player costs include: optional jersey, CCW membership, and personal equipment (cleats, etc.). More information regarding the rules, schedule, and alumni opposition can be found on the web at www.dcalum.org, or by emailing the coaching staff at CAN_Cornell@yahoo.com

If the less American Football is your game, you'll be excited to hear that talk is underway for the first ever Capital Alumni Soccer competition. In preparation, the coaching staff is collecting names with plans for pickup games/scrimmages. Email CCW_Soccer-subscribe@yahoogroups.com to be added to the listserv.

H-O-T, Hot is the one word used to describe the action at Bolling AFB on August 17 & 18 as Cornellians battled for the Primrose Cup in a 34 team softball tournament. Despite an 8 am start and 3 games in record temperatures you could find the Big Red enjoying the beer truck until dark. CAN concluded the season on September 10 & 12 with an All Star Competition and Bottom Line Post Game Celebrations with talk of next year's team well underway. More information about the season is available on the web at www.dcalum.org, or by emailing the coaching staff at CAN_Cornell@yahoo.com

Cornell vs. Columbia November 16, 2002 NYC

Fall and Football in NYC what could be better(except maybe Fall and Football in Ithaca). The Cornell Club of Washington has arranged, in cooperation with the Cornell Club of NYC, for tickets to the Cornell-Columbia football game on November 16th. The game will be at Columbia's Baker Field. A free tailgate party sponsored by the alumni federation will begin at 11:30AM.

Cornell Club of Washington board member Les Glick has worked out arrangements with Cornell Club of NYC staffer Kerry Moseley .

The various options available to our club members from the Cornell Club of NYC are as follows:

1. Tickets - $15.00
2. Bus from Cornell Club(6 E 44th St) to Colombia's Baker Field and return - $15
3. Buffet dinner after the game at the Cornell Club (5-9 PM) - $27 includes tax/tip.

Each item listed above can be purchased separately. However Cornell Club of NYC members are also signing up fast. It is recommended that if you are interested you send an email directly to Karen Moseley (k.moseley@cornellclubnyc.com) with a copy to Les Glick (trevy2@aol.com) to make sure which of the above three items are currently available. Tickets should not be a problem because if the Cornell Club of NYC runs out, Les has a source with the alumni groups sponsoring the tailgate.

The Cornell Club of NYC bus and the buffet dinner have limited capacity. If availability is confirmed by Karen, payment must be sent in advance to Karen Moseley, The Cornell Club of NYC, 6 East 44th Street, New York, NY 10017. Reservations are not refundable.

Depending on the number of members who are interested, we may later explore various options for travel to NYC including car pooling, charter bus, AMTRAK, etc.. Members are of course free to make their own travel arrangements as well. To make the Cornell Club of NYC bus from the Club to the game, you need to be at the club by 10AM Saturday morning.

As a bonus, the Big Red Band will be in attendance and is scheduled (pending permits from NYC) to march from St Patrick's Cathedral to the Cornell Club of NYC after the game and perform in front of the Club. Don't miss this chance to relive the great Cornell Football Tradition. GO BIG RED.

If you have any questions feel free to contact Les at Trevy2@aol.com

International Zinck's Night Thursday, October 17th Lulu's Mardi Gras Club

DON'T MISS THE YEAR'S LARGEST GATHERING OF CORNELLIANS IN THE DC METRO AREA!

Are you eager to return to the old days of socializing on the hill above Cayuga's waters? While the Cornell Club of Washington can't bring the lake to DC, we can provide the atmosphere, other Cornellians, and even some videos of classic Cornell hockey games.

Zinck's Night is the largest CCW event of the year, bringing together over 200 alumni who are young and/or young at heart. Whether you are new to the area or have lived here for many years, Zinck's Night is the place for you to connect with old friends, meet some new ones, and network in a relaxed and fun environment.

CCW will provide door prizes, free appetizers, and drink discounts. All you need to provide is yourself and your desire to spend some quality time with other Cornellians.

Date: Thursday, October 17
Time: 6:30 to 9:00 PM
Place: Lulu's Mardi Gras Club (1217 22nd Street, NW, Washington)
Who: All Cornellians and their guests are welcome
How Much: $8 for Members
$12 for Non-Members
Pay at the door—no advanced tickets needed

Directions: Lulu's is within walking distance from the Red Line (Dupont Circle metro) or the Orange and Blue Lines (Foggy Bottom). Lulu's does not have a parking lot, but limited street parking may be available. For detailed directions, call Lulu's at (202) 861-5858 or visit their web site at <http://lulusclub.com/>.

For more information about Zinck's Night, please contact Julia Judd at (202) 997-1532 or juliagjudd@hotmail.com.
