Farewell from our outgoing Co-Presidents

Dear fellow Cornellians, CCW members, and friends,

It's hard to believe two years have passed since we became Co-Presidents!

During this time, we faced difficult challenges, such as the pandemic, where CCW transitioned events from in-person to virtual then back to hosting in-person events again. However, our Board members proved resilient and effortlessly adapted to these changes.

Being a Cornellian means more than the years spent at Cornell's Ithaca, NYC, or Doha campuses. It's a community and family that lasts a lifetime. Even though we graduated in the same year, 2014, we only crossed paths when we both got involved in CCW and found ourselves in leadership roles.

We are grateful to the CCW Board members and volunteers who have spent countless hours organizing events, communicating, and handling all the behind-the-scenes work needed to keep CCW moving forward. Your efforts and guidance have been invaluable. As our Co-Presidents' time ends, we are confident in our successors, Gil Keteltas and Mike Flanagan. They will undoubtedly continue to lead CCW with excellence. It has been an honor to serve as your Co-Presidents, and we look forward to seeing what the future holds for CCW.

We wish you all the best and hope to CU soon.
